- List dates as accurately as possible, list the dates the slate of classes will be held circuit shows may not be added, deleted or changed in any way once the first circuit show is held.
- Each affiliate must hold at least 3 full slates of classes for an affiliate to qualify riders to regional affiliate finals and to a year end affiliate support check.
- List each separate slate of classes on individual lines. Even if slates are being held the same weekend. The NRHA recognizes a slate of classes as a show. If you have two slates of classes being held but only wish for one to count towards the circuit please list only that slate and not the whole show
- All circuit shows must be completed 30 days prior to your regions affiliate finals. For finals dates please see the website
- Separate NRHA show approval forms must be submitted at least 90 days prior to entry closing date for B level events and 180 days prior to entry closing date for AA and A level shows.
